- (a) the Returning Officer shall, at the appointed hours, take up the scrutiny of nomination Forms and the candidate or the proposer or seconder of each of the candidates may be present at the time and place when nomination papers are scrutinised;
- (b) the Returning Officer shall examine the nomination Forms and shall decide all objections which may be made by any candidate or his proposer or seconder in respect of any nomination and may, either accept or reject any nomination;

PROVIDED that the nomination of a candidate shall not be rejected on the ground of an incorrect description of his name or the name of his proposer or seconder or of any other particulars relating to the candidate or his proposer or seconder, as entered in the list of members; if the identity of the candidate, proposer or seconder, as the case may be, is established beyond reasonable doubt;

- (c) the Returning Officer shall endorse on each nomination Form his decision of accepting or rejecting the same, as the case may be, and if the nomination paper is rejected, he shall record in writing a brief statement of his reasons for such rejection;
- (d) the Returning Officer shall not allow any adjournment of the proceedings except when proceedings are interrupted or obstructed by a riot or affray or by any other cause beyond his control; and
- (e) list of valid nominations accepted by the Returning Officer shall be published on the notice board of the society containing the names in the alphabetical order in English and address of the candidates as given in the nomination paper.

(2) Any candidate may withdraw his candidature by notice in writing signed by him and delivered in person or by the person duly authorised by him at any time after the presentation of the nomination Form, but before the date and time specified in the election programme for such withdrawal and the notice for withdrawal of candidature given by the candidate shall be irrevocable.

19M. Voting

(1) If for any area or constituency for which election is to be held, the number of candidates whose nomination Forms have been declared valid, does not exceed the number of candidates to be elected for that area or constituency, the Returning Officer shall at the general meeting convened for the purpose of the election, declare them to have been duly elected to the board, with the approval of the Authority and if the number of candidates whose nominations are valid exceeds the number of vacancies to be elected for any area or constituency, the Returning Officer shall arrange for conducting the poll on the date and time fixed for the purpose and the Returning Officer may appoint as many polling officers as may be necessary for the conduct of the poll.

(2) A candidate contesting the election, may by a letter, in Form IV, to the Returning Officer, appoint an agent to represent him where polling is held, to identify the voters and to watch the recording of votes and such letter shall also contain the consent in writing of the agent concerned.

(3) Canvassing of votes by any person at the place where elections are to be conducted shall be prohibited.

(4) Before the commencement of the poll, the Returning Officer shall show the empty ballot box to the persons present at the time of commencement of the poll and shall then lock it up and affix his seal to prevent it being opened without breaking the seal and the candidate or his agent may also affix his own seal, if he so desires.

(5) Every member or delegate who desires to exercise his right of vote shall be supplied with a ballot paper containing the names of contesting candidates arranged in alphabetical order either printed, typewritten or cyclostyled, according to convenience, on the ballot paper and the ballot paper shall bear the seal of the society and also the initials of the Returning Officer on the reverse of the ballot paper and contain a column, for the voter to inscribe mark 'X' against the name or names of the persons to whom he intends to cast his vote.

(6) In every polling station, where there is more than one polling booth, each such booth shall contain a separate compartment in which the members or delegates can cast their votes in secrecy.

(7) Every member who desires to cast his votes shall enter the polling station with an identity card, given to him by the society; the polling officer shall identify the member by putting questions to him with reference to the list of members or delegates eligible to vote in the polling station, furnished to him and if the polling officer is satisfied with the identity of the member, and if there is no objection from any candidate or his polling agent present at the polling station, he shall issue a ballot paper to him after obtaining signature or thumb impression of the member or delegate on counterfoil perforated with the ballot paper and the counterfoil shall bear the serial number and other details of the ballot paper and on receipt of such ballot paper, the member shall proceed to the polling compartment set apart for the purpose and indicate the person or persons in whose favour he exercises his vote by inscribing a mark 'X' against the name of the candidate or candidates, as the case may be, and put the ballot paper in the ballot box kept for the purpose with utmost secrecy:

PROVIDED that if owing to blindness or other physical infirmity or illiteracy a member is unable to inscribe the mark on the ballot paper, the polling officer, and where no such polling officer is appointed, the Returning Officer shall ascertain from him the candidate or candidates, in whose favour he desired to vote, inscribe the mark 'X' on his behalf and put the ballot paper in the ballot box.

(8) Every member whose name is entered in the list of members or delegates furnished to the polling officer, shall be eligible to cast his vote unless there is a challenge by the candidate or his agent against his identity and if there is any such challenge about the identity of a member or if the polling officer feels any reasonable doubt, he shall then refer the matter to the Returning Officer, who shall make a summary inquiry and decide the question with regard to the identity of such persons on the basis of records of the society.

(9) The Returning Officer shall not entertain any challenge by a candidate or his polling agent, of a member's identity until the person who challenges pays a fee of rupees five for every such vote and the Returning Officer shall thereafter entertain the challenge and ask the member who has come to poll the vote to affix his thumb impression or signature, as the case may be, on a declaration describing his identity and if he refuses to do so, the member shall not be allowed to vote and if as a result of such summary inquiry, the identity of the member is established to the satisfaction of the Returning Officer, the polling officer shall issue ballot paper, and the member shall then be allowed to cast his vote and in such cases, the challenge fees paid shall be forfeited.

(10) At the end of the poll, the Returning Officer, shall prepare an account of challenge fees collected, fees refunded to the persons who challenged, and the fees forfeited to the society together with a brief note on the decision arrived at by him after the summary inquiry in each case.

(11) If, at any stage of the polling, the proceedings are interrupted or obstructed by any riot or affray or if at such election it is not possible to conduct poll for any sufficient cause, the Returning Officer shall have the power to cancel the polling, after recording the reasons for such cancellation.

(12) No voter shall be permitted to cast his vote after the time fixed for the polling:

PROVIDED that a voter who enters the premises before the closure of the polling time, shall be issued the ballot paper and be allowed to cast his vote.

(13) The counting of votes shall take place immediately after closure of the poll and if it is not possible to count the votes immediately, for reasons beyond the control of the Returning Officer, the ballot box shall be sealed with the seal of the Returning Officer and of the contesting candidates or of their agents, if they so desire, and deposited with the society for safe custody and in such cases the Returning Officer shall then announce, and also, intimate in writing to the candidates or their agents, the time and place at which the counting shall commence on next day and the votes shall be counted by or under the supervision of the Returning Officer on the next day and every candidate and his authorised agent shall have a right to be present at the time of counting and the absence of any candidate or his agent at the time of counting shall not vitiate counting or announcement of results by the Returning Officer.

(14) After the Returning Officer has completed the counting of votes, he shall prepare a return of the results of the polling and shall forthwith declare the results, with the prior approval of the Authority.

(15) The Returning Officer shall immediately after the declaration of the results, record the proceedings of the election in a report which shall form part of the records of the society and the Returning Officer shall immediately furnish a copy of such a report together with a copy of the return of the results of polling to the multi-State co-operative society and the Authority.

19N. Election of office bearers by secret ballot

(1) As soon as the members of the board have been elected, the Returning Officer shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the bye-laws of the multi-State co-operative society, convene a meeting of the newly constituted board for the purpose of election of the President or Chairperson, Vice-President or Vice-Chairperson or other elected office bearers of the society, by whatever name they are called, in accordance with the directions of the Authority and such meeting shall not be conducted unless majority of the newly elected members of the board are present, as per bye-laws of the society.

(2) At the meeting so convened by the Returning Officer, he shall preside over the meeting for the purpose of election of the office bearers by secret ballot.

(3) The Returning Officer shall announce the schedule of election of office bearers, stating the number of vacancies to be filled by election, date, place and time between which nomination Forms may be filled by the members; the date on which and the time and place at which the nomination Forms shall be taken up for scrutiny; the date and time of withdrawal; and the date on which, the place at which the polling, if required, may take place and the Returning Officer shall intimate the schedule of election to all the newly elected members of the board and the intending members may submit their nomination, in Form V, to the Returning Officer at such meeting and the Returning Officer shall decide the objections if any, which may be made at the time, to any nomination and after making such summary inquiry, as he thinks necessary, announce the list of valid nominations.

(4) If for any office, for which elections are to be held, the number of nomination of candidates in respect of an office, does not exceed the number of vacancies to be filled for that office, the candidates who have filed valid nominations shall be deemed to have been elected for that office and the Returning Officer shall make a declaration to that effect, with the prior approval of the Authority and if the number of nomination of candidates in respect of an office, exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled for that office, a poll by secret ballot shall be conducted by the Returning Officer and he shall, thereafter, announce the number of votes secured by each candidate.

(5) The Returning Officer shall thereafter record the proceedings of the election of the office bearers in a report which shall form part of the records of the society and the Returning Officer shall also furnish a copy of such report together with a copy of the return of the polling, to the Authority.

(6) The result of the election shall be declared by the Returning Officer, with prior approval of the Authority.

(7) The certificate of election shall be issued immediately by the Chief Executive of the multi-State co-operative society, after declaration of results by the Returning Officer.

19-O. Admission to the place fixed for counting

(1) The Returning Officer shall exclude from place fixed for counting of votes all persons except,—

- (a) such persons as he may appoint to assist him in the counting;
- (b) persons authorised by the Returning Officer;
- (c) public servants on duty in connection with the election; and
- (d) candidates.

(2) No person, who has been otherwise working for a candidate in the election, shall be appointed under clause (a) of sub-rule (1).

(3) Any person, who during the counting of votes misconducts himself or fails to obey the lawful directions of the Returning Officer, may be removed from the place where the votes are being counted by the Returning Officer or by any police official on election duty or by any person authorised in this behalf by the Returning Officer.

19P. Rejection of ballot paper

(1) A ballot paper shall be rejected by the Returning Officer, if,—

- (a) it bears any mark or writing by which the member who voted can be identified; or
- (b) it does not bear the seal of the society or the initial of the Returning Officer; or
- (c) the mark indicating the vote thereon is placed in such a manner as to make it doubtful to which candidate the vote has been casted; or
- (d) is so damaged or mutilated that its identity as a genuine ballot paper cannot be established.

(2) If after the counting of the votes is completed, an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates and the addition of one vote will entail any of those candidates to be declared as elected, the Returning Officer shall forthwith decide between the candidates by lottery and proceed as if the candidate had received an additional vote and declare him as elected.

19Q. Custody of record of elections conducted

After declaration of the result of election, the Returning Officer shall hand over the ballot papers and records relating to the election of the members of the board and the office bearers to the Chief Executive of the multi-State co-operative society in a sealed cover and all the documents relating to the election shall be safely preserved by the Chief Executive of the society for a period of six months from the date of election or till such time a dispute regarding election, if any, filed is disposed of, whichever is later, and shall thereafter be destroyed.

19R. Death of candidate before poll

If a contesting candidate dies and a report of his death is received by the Returning Officer before the commencement of the poll, the Returning Officer shall, upon being satisfied of the fact of the death of candidate, countermand the poll and inform the Authority along with the proceedings with reference to the election, and the election shall be commenced in all respects, as if for a new election:

PROVIDED that no further nomination shall be necessary in the case of a person who was a contesting candidate at the time of the countermanding of the poll:

PROVIDED FURTHER that no person who has given a notice of withdrawal of his candidature before the countermanding of the poll shall be eligible for being nominated as a candidate for the election after such countermanding:

PROVIDED ALSO that no fresh notice of withdrawal by the candidate whose nomination is accepted before the countermanding shall be accepted by the Returning Officer for the election after such countermanding.

19S. Preparation of electronic voting machines for polls

If the Authority decides to use an electronic voting machine for the poll, it shall direct the procedure thereof, which shall, as far as is technically feasible be in accordance with these rules.

19T. Election expenses

All election related expenditure including stationary, printing, postage, xerox, fax, rent for the ballot boxes, indelible ink, police security and such other items of expenditure related to the election of representatives or directors of a multi-State co-operative society, such as preparation of electoral roll, travelling and other allowances and remuneration payable to the Returning Officer, Assistant Returning Officer and other polling personnel shall be borne by the society and paid to the Authority.

19U. Account of election expenses

(1) Every candidate at an election shall keep a separate and correct account of all expenditure in connection with the election incurred or authorised by him between the date of the order calling the election and the date of declaration of the result thereof, both dates inclusive within the period of thirty days from the date of declaration of the result.

(2) The account shall contain such particulars as may be specified from time to time in addition to the particulars referred to in rule 19W.

(3) The total expenditure shall not exceed the amount as may be specified by the Authority from time to time.

(4) Every contesting candidate at an election shall lodge with the Returning Officer an account of his election expenses within the time and in the manner specified by the Authority from time to time.

19V. Disqualification for failure to lodge account of election expenses

If the Authority, based on a report from the Returning Officer, is satisfied that a person has failed to lodge an account of election expenses within the time and in the manner specified in rule 19U and has no good reason or justification for such failure, the Authority shall, by order published in the Official Gazette, declare him to be disqualified for being elected as, and for being, a member of the board of any society, and any such person shall be disqualified for a period of three years from the date of the order.

19W. Particulars of account of election expenses

(1) The account of election expenses to be kept by a candidate shall contain the following particulars in respect of each item of expenditure from day to day, namely:—

- (a) date on which the expenditure was incurred or authorised;
- (b) nature of the expenditure (as for example, travelling, postage or printing etc.,);
- (c) amount of the expenditure:—
 - (i) amount paid;
 - (ii) amount outstanding;
- (d) date of payment;
- (e) name and address of the payee ;
- (f) serial number of voucher, in the case of amount paid;
- (g) serial number of bills, if any, in case of amount outstanding;
- (h) name and address of the person to whom the amount outstanding is payable.

(2) All the vouchers shall be lodged along with the account of election expenses, arranged according to the date of payment and serially numbered by the candidate and such serial numbers shall be entered in the account under item (f) of sub-rule (1).

(3) It shall not be necessary to give the particulars mentioned in item (c) of sub-rule (1) in respect of items of expenditure, for which vouchers have not been obtained.

19X. Notice by Returning Officer for inspection of accounts

The Returning Officer may, within two days from the date on which the account of election expenses has been lodged by a candidate, cause a notice to be affixed to his notice board, specifying—

- (a) the date on which the account has been lodged;
- (b) the name of the candidate; and
- (c) the time and place at which such account may be inspected.

19Y. Casual vacancies how to be filled in

(1) In the event of casual vacancy occurring on account of death, resignation, disqualification or removal of the member of the board of a society or if any member becomes incapable of acting prior to the expiry of his term of office or otherwise, subject to the conditions specified in sub-section (5) of section 45J of the Act, the Chief Executive of the multi-State co-operative society shall communicate such vacancies, within a week of its occurrence, to the Authority, who shall take action to fill the vacancies, according to the provisions of section 45J of the Act.

(2) Any person, who gets filled in the casual vacancy as per the provisions of section 45J of the Act shall hold office for the remainder of the period of the members of the board in whose place, such member has been filled.

19Z. Maintenance of secrecy of voting

Every officer, clerk, agent, or other person who performs any duty in connection with the recording or counting of votes at an election shall maintain, and aid in maintaining the secrecy of the voting and shall not (except for some purposes authorised by or under any law) communicate to any person any information relating to such voting.]
